Manhville, Tenn Tennessee Platform, Adopted in Convention assembled at Nashelle, on the 18th of January last. The Democratic party of Tennessee, in convention assembled, deeming is their duty to make a doclaration of the principles that will form the basis of their action in the future, and having carefully re examined the ground which they have heretofore occupied, and with the developments of the last four years in view, Be it Resolved, That we hereby re-affirm the principles amounced in the platform of the Democratic party adopted in convention at Cincinnati, in June, 1858, and that we hold them to be a true exposition of our doctrines on the subjects embraced.

Resolved, That the views expressed by the Supreme Court of the United States in the decision of the case of "Dred Scott," are, in our opinion, a true and clear exposition of the powers reposed in Congress upon the subject of the Theritories of the United States, and the rights guaranteed to the residents in the Territories.

Resolved, That the States of the Confederacy are equal in political rights; each flate has the right to settle for itselfall questions of internal polity; the right to have or to not have slavery is one of the prerogatives of self-government—the States did not surrender this right in the Federal Constitution, and Tennessee will not now do so.

Resolved, That the Federal government has no power to interfere with slavery in the States; or to introduce into or exclude it from the terrilories, and no duty to perform in relation thereto, but to protect the rights of the owner from wrong and to restore fugitives from labor; these duties it cannot withheld without a vio-

to protect the rights of the owner from wrong and to restore in citives from labor; these duties it cannot withhold without a violation of the Constitution.

Resolved, That we approve, generally, of the administration of James Buchanan, and that he deserves and receives our tribute of admiration for his clear and lucid exposition of the true doctrine of the Constitution and laws of our Union, and for his firmness in rebuild gesellation and treason.

Resolved, That we have full confidence in the patriotism and wisdom of the representatives of our party at Charleston, and we will give our hearty support to the nominee of that convention.

Resolved, That the organisation of the Republican party upon strictly sectional priciples, and its healtlift to the institution of slavery, which is recognized by the Constitution, and which is inseparably connected with the social and industrial pursuits of the southern States of the Confederacy, is war upon the principles of the Constitution and upon the rights of the States.

Resolved, That the late treasonable invasion of Virginia, by an organized band of Republicans, was the necessary result of the doctrines, teachings and principles of that party; was the begin ning of the "irrepressible conflict" of Mr. Saward; was a hlow aimed at the institution of slavery, by an effort to excite a service insurrection; was war upon the South, and as such, it is the duty of the South to prepare to maintain its rights under the Constitution.

of the South to prepare to maintain its rights under the Constitution.

Resolved, That if this war upon the constitutional rights of the South is persisted in, it must soon cease to be a war of words. If the Republican party would prevent a condict of arms, let them stand by the Constitution and fulfill its obligations—we ask nothing more, we will submit to nothing less.

Resolved, That our distinguished fellow citisen and Senator in Congress, Hon. Andrew Johnson, possesses in an eminent de gree the high qualifications demanded by the exigencies of the iness—combines in his character, history and anbecodents more of the elements of success than any other of the eninest Demo cratic statemen whose names have been suggested in connection with the Presidency. We, therefore, in common with our follow citisens in various portions of the Union, present him as our first choice for the Presidency, and most carnestly but respectfully urge his claims to that high distinction; but if another shall be preferred by the Charleston Convention, and who cordially indorses the Cincinnal platform, whether he reside North or South, we will yield him our nearty support. dially inderses the Cincinnati platform, whether er South, we will yield him our nearty support. The Democratic Platform. Reported from the majority of the Committee on Resolutions at Charleston and adopted by the National Democratic Convention at Baltmore.

Resolved, That the platform adopted by the Democratic party t Cincinnati be affirmed, with the following explanatory resolu-

First, That the government of a Territory, organized by an act of Congress, is provisional and temporary, and during its exist sence all citizens of the United States have an equal right to actitle with their property in the Territory, without their rights, either of person or property, being destroyed or impaired by congressional or territorial legislation.

Second. That it is the duly of the Federal Government, in all its departments, to protect, when necessary, the rights of persons and property in the Territories, and wherever else its constitutional authority extends.

Third, That when the settlers in a Territory, having an adequate population, form a State Constitution, the right of soversignty commences, and being consummated by admission into the Union, they stand on an equal footing with the people of other States; and the State thus organized ought to be admitted into the Federal Union, whether its Constitution prohibits or recognized the institution of slavery.

Resolved, That the Democratic party are in favor of the acquisition of the Island of Cuka, on such terms as shall be honorable to curselves and just to Spain, at the earliest practicable noment. ment.

Resolved, That the enactments of State Legislatures, to defeat the faithful execution of the fugitive slave law, are hostile in character, subversive of the Constitution, and revolutionary in their affect.

Resolved, That the Democracy of the United States recognize it as the imperative duty of this Government to protect the naturalised citizen in all his rights, whether at home or in foreign lands, to the same extent as its native born citizens.

Whereas. One of the greatest necessities of the ago, in a political, commercial, postal and military point of view, is a speedy communication between the Pacific and Atlantic coasts; therefore be it

Resolved, That the National Democratic party do here pledge themselves to use every means in their power to sees the passage of some bill, to the extent of the Constitutional a hority of Compress, for the construction of a Pacific Railro from the Mississippi river to the Pacific ocean, at the earlie
